DETAILED ACTION

CONTINUED EXAMINATION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on 12/16/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 3-5, and 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huxter (2002/0103724), in view of Myrick et al (2004/0133446) as supported by the Provisional Application 60/423,045.

Re Claim 1: Huxter discloses attempting a delivery at a primary location (see 109 in Figure 8, [0211]); if the delivery to the primary location fails, communicating a notification to the recipient of an upcoming delivery to a preferred redirection location (see 340 IN Figure 10A, [0017, 0189, 0203]); receiving a response to the notification from the recipient wherein the response to the notification is adapted to change the preferred redirection location to an alternative redirection location (see 340 in Figure 10A), and delivering the parcel to the alternative redirection location (see 109 in Figure 8, Figure 40, [0249-0250]).

However, Huxter fails to disclose selecting the preferred redirection location prior to the delivery, and wherein the alternative redirection location is different from the primary location and the preferred redirection location. Myrick discloses selecting the preferred redirection location prior to the delivery (see Abstract, Figures 1-5), and also discloses alternate delivery locations, therefore more than one (see [0007, 0013, 0046]). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Huxter's invention with Myrick's use of selecting an alternate location prior to delivery, and multiple delivery locations in order to have "the convenience of an item shipped to a staffed delivery location instead of the home or business address of the customer for later retrieval by authorized parties (see [0002])."

Re Claim 3: Huxter discloses wherein the notification step comprises an email to the recipient (see 1207 in Figure 4 and [0123]).

Re Claim 4: Huxter discloses wherein the notification step comprises a SMS message to the recipient (see 1206 in Figure 4 and [0123]).

Re Claim 5: Huxter discloses comprising batching manual records of deliveries (see [0182]).

Re Claim 7: Huxter discloses wherein prior to step (a), the method further comprises registering with a delivery service (see Figure 8).

Art Unit: 3627

Re Claim 8: Huxter discloses wherein the registration step comprises providing the preferred redirection location to the delivery service (see Figure 8).

Re Claim 9: Huxter discloses wherein the registration step comprises providing the primary location to the delivery service (see Figure 8).

Re Claim 10: Huxter discloses wherein the registration step comprises generating an identifier unique to the recipient (see 101-106 in Figure 8).

Re Claim 11: Huxter discloses wherein the registration step comprises generating an identifier unique to the transaction (see 211 in Figure 9).

Re Claim 12: Huxter discloses wherein the primary location is a residential address of the recipient (see [0018]) and Figure 39).
